

Neighborhood One Campus + Graduate Engineering Center

Clemson University- ICAR Campus, Greenville, SC

The Epsten Group was the LEED Campus Consultant for Neighborhood One of Clemson University's new research campus in addition to its flagship building, the Carroll A. Campbell Graduate Engineering Center for Automotive Research, designed by Mack Scogin Merrill Elam Architects. The $18 Million building includes automotive research laboratories, classrooms, administrative areas, and community spaces.